

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: LSE Fellow in the History of Africa and Empire

Department/Division: International History

Accountable to: Head of Department

Competency	E/D
Completed a PhD in Twentieth Century History by the post start date	E
A very good knowledge of the history of Africa.	E
A very good knowledge of the history the British Empire including India	D
A developing research record in the history of Africa and/or in the history of the British Empire	E
Excellent communication and presentation skills	E
The ability to work in close partnership with fellow teachers, including on a one-on-one basis and in small groups, and to provide effective support, as necessary	E
Foster an engaging and supportive learning environment	E
A commitment to equality and diversity	E
Relevant teaching experience	E
Ability to teach a third-year course on the political history the British Empire, its decline and contemporary legacy with a focus on African and Indian twentieth century global history and conflict	E
Ability to teach a Masters course on the political history of colonial rule in Africa and its impact with a focus on the twentieth century global history and conflict	E

Experience in carrying out course administration including using the Virtual Learning Environment at LSE, "Moodle".	D
---	---

E – Essential: requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.