

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Research Officer in Information Systems and Innovation

Department: Management

Accountable to: Assistant Professor of Information Systems

Criteria	E/D
Expertise and research interests in Information Systems and Innovation	E
A completed PhD, or close to obtaining a PhD, in Information Systems or a relevant related field by the post start date	E
Proven ability or potential to publish in internationally excellent publications	E
Experience in qualitative research method skills	E
Experience of, or the ability to learn, mixed-methods research approaches	D
Experience of, or the ability to learn, research skills in quantitative research involving large data sets	D
Ability to cooperate and collaborate with cross disciplinary academic and industry partners within the IRIS project and beyond	E
Communications skills including for a non-specialist audience	E
Enthusiasm to engage with software engineering and computer science aspects of the wider project	E
A willingness to work in a new role whose precise parameters will be refined throughout the period of the appointment	E

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.