

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professor in Real Estate Economics and Finance

Department: Geography and Environment

Accountable to: Head of Department

Requirements	E/D
1. Research
Expertise in Urban Economics and/or Finance with some research focused on any area of Real Estate	E
A completed PhD, or close to obtaining a PhD, in Economics, Economic Geography, Finance (or related discipline) by the post start date	E
A track record or trajectory of internationally excellent publications	E
Proven ability, as evidenced by existing publications, or potential to publish in top refereed journals.	D
A clear, well developed and viable strategy for future outstanding research that has the potential to result in world-leading publications.	E
Ability to establish an international reputation in Real Estate.	E
Ability to attract external funding.	D
Ability to undertake research that has impact and ability to engage in knowledge exchange.	D
Advanced training in quantitative research methods.	E

Willingness to engage in collaborative research with other members of the Department, and with related research centres and disciplines.	D
2. Teaching
Ability to teach courses in applied Urban and Real Estate Economics and/or Real Estate Finance and/or Quantitative Methods for Economic Research at BSc and MSc level	E
Experience in teaching courses in applied Urban Economics, Real Estate Economics, Real Estate Finance and/or Quantitative Methods for Economic Research at BSc or MSc level.	D
A commitment to high quality teaching and fostering a positive learning environment for students, including pastoral care	E
Teaching-related administrative experience	D
3. Other
A commitment to work as part of a team in assisting the smooth running of the Department and its teaching programmes (in particular the MSc Real Estate Economics and Finance)	E
Excellent written and oral communication skills, including an ability to place one's specialist work within a broader social science context	E
Evidence of innovation or creativity in research or teaching	D
Evidence of the ability to develop, or commitment to developing, a novel and independent research agenda – significantly distinct from their doctoral research (this is particularly important for candidates who completed their studies some time prior to the date of application and/or candidates who are completing/completed their studies at the Department).	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.