Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Course Tutor in City Design and Social Science

Department/Division: Sociology (Cities Programme)
Accountable to: Cities Programme Directors & Head of Department

Competency	Criteria	E/D
PhD Completed	A completed PhD in Architecture, Urban Design, Planning, Urban Sociology, Urban Studies or closely related field by start of post.	E
Research focus	Research interests in design and the relation between the social and spatial life of cities.	E
Undergraduate/ postgraduate studies	A Bachelor or Master's degree in Architecture, Design, Urban Studies, Urban Planning or related field.	E
Undergraduate/ postgraduate teaching	Experience teaching in architecture, urban design and planning and/or urban studies	E
Teaching across class lectures and seminars	A commitment to high quality teaching in the context of lectures and studio, and fostering a positive learning environment for students.	E
Leadership and management skills	Experience with programme and/or course management and administration.	D
Communication Skills	An ability to communicate effectively.	E
Published or in review	A developing record of publications in refereed journals.	E
Team work	An ability and willingness to work as part of a team under the guidance of the Cities Programme Directors and Head of Department.	E
Connections to Social Science	An ability to relate specialist work to the context of a Sociology Department within a social science institution.	D

E – Essential: requirements without which the job could not be done.
D – Desirable: requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.