

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professorial Research Fellow (Growth and the Environment)

Department/Division: Grantham Research Institute

Accountable to: Research Director or Programme Leader (dependent on research area)

Competency	Criteria	E/D
Research	A completed PhD, or close to obtaining a PhD in Economics, Environmental Economics or a related discipline.	E
	A track-record or trajectory of peer-reviewed publications in high-ranking, internationally recognised academic journals.	E
	Proven ability, as evidenced by existing publications, or potential to publish in top journals	E
	Deep knowledge of environmental economics, in particular climate change, with a focus on questions of growth, public economics, fiscal policy and/or macroeconomic policy.	E
	Ability, and willingness, to attract external funding	D
Engagement	Ability and willingness to engage actively with non-academic decision makers and communicate analytical content to policy makers	E
	Track record as, or trajectory to become a recognised thought leader in the policy debate on growth and the environment	D
Communication	Excellent written and oral communication skills.	E
	Ability to communicate important aspects of technically complicated issues to non-technical researchers and users	E
Team work	Ability to work as part of a team within the Grantham Research Institute and its associated research groups as well as within the LSE as a whole.	E
	Ability to innovate, fill the missing links within a team, as well as to work independently.	E

E – Essential: requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.