

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: LSE Fellow in Gender Studies

Department/Centre/Institute: Gender Studies

Accountable to: Head of Department

Competency	E/D
Awarded a PhD in social sciences, humanities or a closely related subject by the application end date	E
Excellent knowledge of gender theory	E
A developing research record in gender studies	E
Demonstrated knowledge and expertise in two of the following: * Gender, Rights and Human Rights * Gender and Cultural Theory or Media * Feminist Epistemology and Feminist Research Methods	E
Substantive interests in one of the following: *Postcolonial, anti-colonial and decolonial approaches to Gender Studies *Black feminist and intersectional approaches *Transnational feminist approaches	E
Excellent communication and presentation skills	E
Ability to work in close partnership with other teachers, including on a one-on-one basis and in small groups, and to provide effective support as necessary	E
Foster an engaging and supportive learning environment	E
Commitment to equality and diversity	E
Relevant postgraduate teaching experience in gender studies	D

Experience in managing and contributing to course virtual learning environments (e.g. Moodle)	D
Experience in carrying out course administration	D
Relevant experience in supervising MSc dissertations	D

E – Essential: requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.