

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: LSE Fellow

Department: Social Policy

Accountable to: Head of Department

Competency	E/D
Completed or close to completing a PhD in social policy or an area otherwise related to the teaching needs of the post, by the post start date	E
A commitment to high quality teaching and to fostering a positive learning environment for students, including with regard to pastoral care.	E
Excellent written and oral communication skills, including the ability to place one's specialist work within a broader social science context.	E
Ability to work closely with academic and professional services staff, including on a one-on-one basis, and to provide effective support, as necessary.	E
The ability to work in close partnership with fellow teachers, including on a one-on-one basis and in small groups, and to provide effective support, as necessary	E
A developing research record in social and public policy.	E
Potential to produce internationally excellent publications.	E
A commitment to equality and diversity	E
Experience of teaching at undergraduate and postgraduate level.	E
Ability to teach on existing departmental courses in Social Security.	E
Ability to teach on existing departmental core courses.	E

Ability to teach on existing departmental courses in social economics or welfare analysis and measurement	D
Teaching-related administrative experience, including working with virtual learning environments (e.g. Moodle and Zoom).	D
Use of quantitative methods in own research	D

E – Essential: requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.