

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: LSE Fellow in International Development and Humanitarian Emergencies

Department/Division: International Development

Accountable to: Head of Department

Competency	E/D
Completed or close to completing a PhD in development studies, political science, sociology or related field, by the post start date	E
A very good knowledge of the academic literature in one or more areas of the politics, sociology or anthropology (or related disciplines) of a major aspect of international humanitarianism, complex emergencies and/or development in fragile states	E
A developing research record on a major aspect of international humanitarianism, (or) complex emergencies or development in fragile states	E
Excellent communication and presentation skills	E
The ability to work in close partnership with fellow teachers, including on a one-on-one basis and in small groups, and to provide effective support, as necessary	E
Foster an engaging and supportive learning environment	E
A commitment to equality and diversity	E
Relevant teaching experience	D
Experience of managing and contributing to course virtual learning environments (e.g. Moodle)	D
Experience in carrying out course administration	D

E – Essential: requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.