

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professor in Political Economy

Department: European Institute

Accountable to: Head of Department

Requirements	E/D
1. Research
Expertise and research interests in any field of political economy	E
Completed or have submitted a PhD in political economy or a related discipline by the post start date	E
Evidence of a trajectory of internationally excellent research	E
Evidence of the potential to publish in world-leading journals and/or academic presses	E
Evidence of a well-defined and viable strategy for future research that has the potential to result in world-leading publications	E
An ability to undertake theoretically innovative and methodologically rigorous empirical research	E
Research specialism in monetary policy and financial systems	D
Ability to attract external funding	D
Ability to undertake research that has impact and ability to engage in knowledge exchange	D
Willingness to engage in collaborative research with other members of the Department, and with related research centres and disciplines.	E
2. Teaching

Ability and willingness to teach at postgraduate level	E
A commitment to high quality teaching and fostering a positive learning environment for students, including pastoral care	E
Teaching-related administrative experience	D
3. Other
A commitment to work as part of a team in assisting the smooth running of the Department and its teaching programmes	E
Excellent written and oral communication skills, including an ability to place one's specialist work within a broader social science context	E
Evidence of innovation or creativity in research or teaching	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.