

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professor in Law (Family Law)

Department: Law

Accountable to: Head of Department

Requirements	E/D
1. Research
Expertise and research interests in Family Law	E
A completed PhD or it's research equivalent, or close to obtaining a PhD, in Family Law by the post start date	E
A track record or trajectory of internationally excellent publications	E
Proven ability, as evidenced by existing publications or potential to publish in top journals or with leading book publishers, to publish in Family Law	E
A clear, well developed and viable strategy for future outstanding research that has the potential to result in world-leading publications	E
Ability to establish an international reputation in Family Law	E
Ability to attract external funding	D
Ability to undertake research that has impact and ability to engage in knowledge exchange	D
2. Teaching
Ability to teach Family Law at Undergraduate and Postgraduate level and contribute to core undergraduate teaching	E

Experience in teaching Family Law at Undergraduate and Postgraduate level	D
A commitment to high quality teaching and fostering a positive learning environment for students, including pastoral care	E
Teaching-related administrative experience	D
3. Other
A commitment to work as part of a team in assisting the smooth running of the Department and its teaching programmes	E
Excellent written and oral communication skills, including an ability to place one's specialist work within a broader social science context	E
Evidence of innovation or creativity in research or teaching	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.