

Job Description

This form summarises the purpose of the job and lists its key tasks. It is not a definitive list of all the tasks to be undertaken as those can be varied from time to time at the discretion of the School, in consultation with the postholder.

Job title: Research Officer (Justice Interactions and Peacebuilding)

Department/Centre/Institute: European Institute Accountable to: Principal Investigator

Job Summary

You will support the Principal Investigator (PI) on the ERC-funded project 'Justice Interactions and Peacebuilding: From Static to Dynamic Discourses across National, Ethnic, Gender and Age Groups' in the fulfilment of project deliverables and work packages, carrying out independent and collaborative research, and facilitating its effective and efficient delivery.

Duties and Responsibilities

Range of Research Activities and Responsibilities

- Contribute to the fulfilment of project deliverables and its work packages
- Demonstrating the ability to analyse and research complex ideas, concepts or theories and applying appropriate methodologies
- Independent research on key aspects of the project as well as research collaboration
- Generate primary data and conduct analysis
- Collate and document findings
- Writing up research for publication in a variety of modes including peer reviewed journals
- Support with administration of project deliverables
- Presenting research papers at conferences
- Liaising and coordination with project collaborators
- Organisation and running of research workshops and seminars
- Assistance with dissemination, knowledge exchange and research impact activities
- Contributing to the project website, and maintaining project visibility and publicity
- Contributing creative solutions to research challenges

Activities relating to administration and management and/or School service may include:

- Playing a constructive role in the life of the Centre/Institute/Department.

All of the above subject to the contractual obligations imposed by the external funding agency and with the agreement of the grant-holder, Principal Investigator and/or Head of Centre.

Flexibility

To deliver services effectively, a degree of flexibility may be required in the duties performed in order to meet the exigencies of service. Job roles may also naturally develop over time and ongoing substantial changes to a role will be discussed between line managers and their staff, with job descriptions updated as and when appropriate.

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI)

LSE is committed to building a diverse, equitable and truly inclusive university. All posts (and post holders) will seek to ensure diversity and inclusion, while opposing all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination on the grounds of age, disability, gender identity, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation, or social and economic background.

Ethics Code

Posts (and post holders) are assumed to have a responsibility to act in accordance with the School's Ethics Code and to promote the principles and values that the Code enshrines. The Ethics Code clearly states that the whole LSE community, including all staff, students, and governors of LSE, are expected to act in accordance with the principles which are set out in the Code. As such you are required to read and familiarise yourself with it. The School's Effective Behaviours Framework is designed to support this Code. It sets out examples for the six behaviours that all staff are expected to demonstrate, these can be found on the following link: click here

Environmental Sustainability

The post holder is required to minimise environmental impact in the performance of the role, and actively contribute to the delivery of the LSE Environmental Policy.