

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professor in Gender and Globalisation

Department: Gender Studies

Accountable to: Head of Department

Requirements	E/D
1. Research
Expertise and research interests in political economy approaches to the inter-related fields of gender and globalisation; theorising policy and practice; inequality within and between countries and a focus on one or more of the following substantive areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Political economy approaches to gender, development and globalisation• Theorising policy and practice• Inequality within and between countries• Migration• Labour markets; work and employment• Health• Education• Poverty• Social movements and collective action	E
An area focus on Africa, the Middle East or South East Asia	D
A completed PhD, or close to obtaining a PhD, in social sciences by the post start date	E
A track record or trajectory of internationally excellent publications	E
Proven ability, as evidenced by existing publications, or potential to publish in top journals and/or with leading book publishers	E

A clear, well developed and viable strategy for future outstanding research that has the potential to result in world-leading publications	E
Ability to establish an international reputation in specialist area of research	E
Ability to attract external funding	D
Ability to undertake research that has impact and ability to engage in knowledge exchange	D
Training and experience with mixed (qualitative-quantitative) research methods	E
Willingness to engage in collaborative research with other members of the Department, and with related research centres and disciplines.	D
2. Teaching
Ability to teach at postgraduate level	E
Experience in teaching gender, development & globalisation at Master's level	DE
A commitment to high quality teaching and fostering a positive learning environment for students, including pastoral care	E
Teaching-related administrative experience	D
3. Other
A commitment to work as part of a team in assisting the smooth running of the Department and its teaching programmes	E
Excellent written and oral communication skills, including an ability to place one's specialist work within a broader interdisciplinary context	E
Evidence of innovation or creativity in research or teaching	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.