

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professor on Europe and the International Political Economy

Department/Division: European Institute

Accountable to: Head of Department

Requirements	E/D
1. Research
Expertise and research interests in policy issues relating to the European and international political economy.	E
A completed PhD, or close to obtaining a PhD by the post start date, in economics (including its various subfields).	E
An ability to place such research in a wider, cross-disciplinary context that addresses key themes relevant to contemporary Europe and public policy.	D
A proven ability to undertake methodologically rigorous empirical research, either of a qualitative or quantitative nature.	E
A track record or trajectory of internationally excellent publications.	E
Proven ability, as evidenced by existing publications, or potential to publish in top journals or with leading book publishers in political economy or economics.	E
A clear, well-developed and viable strategy for future outstanding research that has the potential to result in world-leading publications.	E
Ability to attract external funding.	D
Ability to undertake research that has impact and ability to engage in knowledge exchange.	D
Willingness to engage in collaborative research with other members of the	D

Department, and with related research centres and disciplines.
2. Teaching	E/D
Ability to teach in related areas and to place political economy in a wider thematic and/or comparative frame at the graduate level.	E
Experience in teaching within a relevant discipline at the graduate level.	D
Evidence of research-led teaching	D
Ability to contribute to the teaching of methods training and professional skills development at the masters and doctoral level.	D
A commitment to high quality teaching and fostering a positive learning environment for students, including pastoral care.	E
Teaching-related administrative experience.	D
3. Other	E/D
A commitment to work as part of a team in assisting the smooth running of the Department and its teaching programmes.	E
Excellent written and oral communication skills, including an ability to place one's specialist work within a broader social science context.	E
Evidence of innovation or creativity in research or teaching.	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.