

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professor in International Political Economy Ref no.: 47920

Department: European Institute

Accountable to: Head of Department

Requirements	E/D
1. Research
Expertise and research interests in international political economy related to the role of the European Union and its external relations (e.g. regional cooperation initiatives, relations with international organisations, participation in bilateral and multilateral negotiations)	E
Research interests relating to the provision of international public goods and burden-sharing (climate change, refugee flows, trade disputes, financial regulation, etc).	D
PhD in a related field or evidence that a PhD will have been obtained by June 2017.	E
A track record or trajectory of internationally excellent publications	E
Proven ability, as evidenced by existing publications, or potential to publish in top journals or with leading book publishers	E
A clear, well developed and viable strategy for future outstanding research that has the potential to result in world-leading publications	E
Ability to attract external funding	D
Ability to undertake research that has impact and ability to engage in knowledge	D exchange

Willingness to engage in collaborative research with other members of the Department, and with related research centres and disciplines.	D
2. Teaching
Ability to teach political economy at the graduate level	E
Experience in teaching political economy at the graduate level	D
A commitment to high quality teaching and fostering a positive learning environment for students, including pastoral care	E
Evidence of research-led teaching	D
Ability to contribute to the teaching of methods training and professional skills development at the masters and doctoral level	D
Teaching-related administrative experience	D
3. Other
A commitment to work as part of a team in assisting the smooth running of the Department and its teaching programmes	E
Excellent written and oral communication skills, including an ability to place one's specialist work within a broader social science context	E
Evidence of innovation or creativity in research or teaching	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.