

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professor in Health and International Development

Department: International Development

Accountable to: Head of Department

Requirements	E/D
1. Research
Expertise and research interests in health and international development	E
A completed PhD, or close to obtaining a PhD, in development studies, geography, government, international relations, politics, or sociology by the post start date	E
A track record or trajectory of internationally excellent publications in health and international development from any of these perspectives: development studies, geography, government, international relations, politics, or sociology.	E
Proven ability, as evidenced by existing publications, or potential to publish in top journals or with leading book publishers in health and international development	E
A clear, well developed and viable strategy for future outstanding research that has the potential to result in world-leading publications	E
Ability to establish an international reputation in health and international development	E
Ability to attract external funding	D
Ability to undertake research that has impact and ability to engage in knowledge exchange	D
Willingness to engage in collaborative research with other members of the Department, and with related research centres and disciplines.	D

2. Teaching
Ability to teach health and international development at postgraduate level	E
Experience in teaching health and international development at postgraduate level	D
A commitment to high quality teaching and fostering a positive learning environment for students, including pastoral care	E
Teaching-related administrative experience	D
3. Other
A commitment to work as part of a team in assisting the smooth running of the Department and its teaching programmes	E
Excellent written and oral communication skills, including an ability to place one's specialist work within a broader social science context	E
Evidence of innovation or creativity in research or teaching	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.