Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: LSE Fellow in Urban Planning and Geography (Band 6)

Department/Division: Geography & Environment   Accountable to: Prof Steve Gibbons

Criteria	E/D
Completed or close to completing a PhD in a relevant subject, by the post start date	E
A very good knowledge of urban planning and geography, whose work could include, but is not limited to, urban policy and planning, social life of cities, urban geography	E
A developing research record in urban planning and geography, whose work could include, but is not limited to, urban policy and planning, social life of cities, urban geography	E
Excellent communication and presentation skills	E
The ability to work in close partnership with fellow teachers, including on a one-on-one basis and in small groups, and to provide effective support, as necessary	E
Foster an engaging and supportive learning environment	E
A commitment to EDI (equity, diversity and inclusion)	E
Relevant teaching and assessment experiences at undergraduate and postgraduate level. (Successful candidates, depending on their previous teaching experience, may be required to undertake the LSE's PGCert in Higher Education (Associate Level)).	E
Ability to relate own specialist work to general issues facing the discipline in the contemporary world.	E
Excellent administrative skills	E

Ability and willingness to work as part of a team in the development strategy of the Department.	E
Ability to communicate effectively with students, academics and academic support staff.	E
Ability to develop and support experiential learning experiences for students	D
Interest and/or experience in innovative and web-based teaching methods.	D
Experience of supervising undergraduate and Master's students	D
Experience of managing and contributing to course virtual learning environments (e.g., Moodle)	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.
D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.