

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Policy Fellow (Monetary and Financial Markets)

Department/Division: Grantham Research Institute on Climate Change and the Environment
Accountable to: Distinguished Policy Fellow and Principal Investigator, Dr Simon Dikau

Competency	Criteria	E/D
Knowledge & experience	A Masters degree in environmental economics/policy, sustainable finance, economics, finance, management, law or a closely related field.	E
	Strong knowledge of the field of monetary and financial markets and related climate and environmental policy questions, with application to central banking, financial supervision, financial market regulation and standards in the European context.	E
	Strong publication track record of policy and research publications, or professional experience developing policies and implementation guidance, on the role of monetary and financial markets authorities in the context of environmental degradation and economic transition	E
	Experience of directly engaging with or working within monetary and financial market authorities in Europe or overseas on issues relating to environmental degradation and economic transition	E
	Demonstrable skills and ability to conduct and manage high-quality research-based policy projects on the role of monetary and financial market authorities in a timely manner.	E
	Experience of working in a team of researchers and policy analysts, including coordinating the contribution of other project team members and working with senior colleagues.	E
	Demonstrable ability to build strong network of European climate policy contacts in the public, private, and third sectors.	E
	Successful track record of fundraising and liaising with funders, e.g., grant applications etc.	D

Communication	Excellent communication skills, both written and oral, in English, with the ability to communicate technical issues to a non-technical audience.	E
Teamwork and motivation	Willingness to work as part of a team within the new Centre, the Grantham Research Institute and the ESRC Centre for Climate Change Economics and Policy.	E
	Ability to work under limited supervision as and when required.	E

E – Essential: requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.