

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Research Officer in Global Surgical Economics and Policy

Department: Global Surgery Policy Unit, LSE Health

Accountable to: LSE Co-Director, Global Surgery Policy Unit and Director of LSE Health

Criteria	E/D
Expertise and research interests in global surgical economics and/or policy	E
Proven ability or potential to publish in internationally excellent publications	E
Knowledge of mixed-methods research approaches	E
Ability to cooperate and collaborate with cross disciplinary academic and clinical research partners within the GSPU and beyond	E
Communications skills including for a non-specialist audience	E
A willingness to work in a new role whose precise parameters will be refined throughout the period of the appointment	E
Experience of, or the ability to learn, research skills in quantitative research involving large data sets	D
Experience of clinical practice or research work in low/middle-income country settings	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.