

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professor (Education) in Environmental Economics and Policy

Department: Geography and Environment

Accountable to: Head of Department

Requirements	E/D
Expertise in the field of Environmental Economics and Policy or related discipline, to a demonstrably high level	E
A PhD in a relevant field	E
Experience of course level leadership, including course design, delivery, and management	D
Experience in managing experiential learning activities (e.g., student field trips)	D
Evidence of a strong track record in teaching	E
Ability to teach research methods and Environmental Economics and Policy at the Undergraduate level	E
Ability to teach research methods and Environmental Economics and Policy at the Postgraduate level	D
A commitment to high-quality teaching and fostering a positive, inclusive and supportive learning environment for students	E
Evidence of a track record in student mentoring and pastoral care	E
Experience in supervising student dissertations	D

Evidence of innovation or creativity in teaching	E
A commitment to working as part of a team and assisting in the smooth running of the Department and its teaching programmes	E
Strong interpersonal and networking skills that enable the development of internal networks	E
Ability to resolve problems and to refer on as appropriate	E
Experience in supervising the teaching of more junior colleagues	D

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.