

Job Description

This form summarises the purpose of the job and lists its key tasks. It is not a definitive list of all the tasks to be undertaken as those can be varied from time to time at the discretion of the School, in consultation with the postholder.

Job title: Programmes Co-ordinator

Department/Division: Department of Management
Accountable to: Programme Administrator

Job Summary:

To provide a high and comprehensive level of front line and administrative support to the staff and students of the Department of Management, supporting the work of the Programmes teams and Faculty in delivering the Department's degree programmes.

To take on specific tasks throughout the year for individual Programme teams as defined by the Programme Manager, in conjunction with allocated cyclical tasks.

Duties and Responsibilities

The key duties associated with this post are as follows:

Communication

- To provide administrative support for the orientation and welcome of new students, including organising and documenting pre-sessional and/or Welcome Week events and the production of welcome and study materials;
- To work closely with Faculty and Programmes teams to coordinate and administer reading lists and case studies;
- To lead on the design and distribution of weekly student newsletters and other key student communications;
- To manage, triage and communicate via shared programmes mailboxes with key stakeholders.

Reception and Front-Facing Activities

- To act as a focal point of enquiry for student queries and to provide advice on Department and School procedures, or refer elsewhere as appropriate;
- To provide high levels of customer service to current students, applicants, alumni and other visitors to the Reception desk.

Programme Administration Support

- To prepare, update and maintain reading lists and Moodle pages as required;
- To liaise with relevant administrative staff and Faculty both inside and outside of the Department to support programmes and courses and aid the smooth running of the Programmes teams;

- To work closely with the Marketing, Analytics and Communications team as required, to ensure that information in student bulletins, on webpages and on social media channels remains up-to-date;
- To assist with assessment and marking procedures, including coordinating a large number of assessment submissions in an accurate and timely manner;
- To identify potential areas of development for student support and methods of implementation.

Events and Student Experience

- To support the Staff Student Liaison Committee and other ad-hoc working groups as required;
- To support the organisation of programme-related events, including the orientation of new students and extra-curricular events throughout the academic year;
- To assist with the coordination of alumni and career development activities;
- To undertake appropriate administrative tasks to facilitate meetings and events, including catering and making room bookings for student activities.

Department Duties

- To support and cover for other Programme Coordinators;
- To be a proactive member of the Programmes Team, contributing to Department wide plans and activities;
- To support the implementation of the Department's future plans and developments;
- To understand and abide by the School's regulations and legislation regarding data protection, freedom of information and recorded student information.

Flexibility

To deliver services effectively, a degree of flexibility may be required in the duties performed in order to meet the exigencies of service. Job roles may also naturally develop over time and ongoing substantial changes to a role will be discussed between line managers and their staff, with job descriptions updated as and when appropriate. Some attendance of evening events is required.

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI)

LSE is committed to building a diverse, equitable and truly inclusive university. All posts (and post holders) will seek to ensure diversity and inclusion, while opposing all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination on the grounds of age, disability, gender identity, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation, or social and economic background.

Ethics Code

Posts (and post holders) are assumed to have a responsibility to act in accordance with the School's Ethics Code and to promote the principles and values that the Code enshrines. The Ethics Code clearly states that the whole LSE community, including all staff, students, and governors of LSE, are expected to act in accordance with the principles which are set out in the Code. As such you are required to read and familiarise yourself with it. The School's Effective Behaviours Framework is designed to support this Code. It sets out examples for the six behaviours that all staff are expected to demonstrate, these can be found on the following link: click here

Environmental Sustainability

The post holder is required to minimise environmental impact in the performance of the role, and actively contribute to the delivery of the LSE Environmental Policy.