

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Assistant Professor in Philosophy

Department/Division: Philosophy, Logic and Scientific Method Accountable to: Head of Department

Competency	Criteria	E/D
Research	Expertise and research in logic or related fields in philosophy	E
	A completed PhD, or close to obtaining a PhD, in philosophy or a closely related discipline relevant for logic by the post start date	E
	A track record of internationally excellent research, as evidenced by publication in leading journals or with leading book publishers or by excellent writing samples and letters of reference	E
	A well-developed strategy for future outstanding research that has the potential to result in world-leading publications	E
	Ability to establish an international reputation for excellent research in logic and related fields in philosophy	E
	Ability to do high-quality interdisciplinary research and to develop research links between philosophy and other disciplines at LSE	D
	Ability to attract external funding	D

	Ability to undertake research that has impact outside of academia and that engages the public	D
Teaching	Ability to contribute research-led teaching in logic or related fields	E
	Ability to teach logic at all levels	E
	Ability to contribute to teaching other courses offered by the Department in its undergraduate and post graduate programmes	E
	A commitment to excellent teaching and fostering a positive learning environment for students, including pastoral care, as evidenced by reviews of teaching quality by colleagues and student feedback	E
Other	An ability and commitment to work as part of a team in assisting the smooth running of the Department and its teaching programmes	E
	Excellent written and oral communication skills, including an ability to place one's specialist work within a broader context	E

E – Essential: requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.